

ASLEEP IN HER LORD

After Long Battle With Disease
Miss Sallie W. Greene Passes Away.

Thursday evening, March 5th, at 11 o'clock, the earth life of Miss Sallie Williams Greene, after a long illness, came to a close.

She was eldest daughter of Mr. James Greene, deceased and Mrs. Catherine Oldham Greene, and would have been 49 years old the coming May 1st. She is survived by her mother, one sister, Mrs. J. Arch Mason and three brothers, H. K. Greene, J. O. Greene and Roy S. Greene, all of Montgomery county. Funeral services were conducted in the Baptist church by former pastor, Dr. W. J. Bolin, of Knoxville, Tenn. and Rev. J. S. Wilson, pastor, and remains were laid to rest in Machpelah cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Miss Greene was a graduate of Georgetown College and had been one of the most successful teachers in the state.

A member of the Baptist church, was well grounded in the faith and her church doctrines as well, and hers was the beautiful christian life. It had been her joy to help others in the preparation for their life work. Her time had been given to much reading from standard authors, much thought and continuous and helpful work, and with this life, she entered on her reward.

The lovely floral offerings were as emblems of a perfected character, of sweet graces and deeds of love, of which it was her's to possess. It would not be too much of a fancy, could she return to speak to those in the flesh, to hear her speak the words "Had I ten thousand thousand tongues,

Not one should silent be;
Had I ten thousand thousand hearts,

I'd give them all to Thee."

KRYL'S CONCERT

The musicale to be given to-night at the Tabb Opera House by Bohumir Kryl and his two daughters will not begin until 8:30 o'clock on account of the protracted meeting now in progress at the Christian church. This hour was decided upon in order to give all an opportunity to attend.

MR. DESHA BRECKENRIDGE

Makes Grave Charges in Regard to Local Post Office Contest.

The Lexington Herald has long been noted for its fairness, its independence and its conservatism, hence the following extracts from an editorial in Saturday's issue, is of interest not only to the people of Montgomery county, but of the entire State:

Presidential Patronage in Ky.

The contest for the postoffice at Mt. Sterling, which is, as far as we are aware, the first instance in which there has been an open disagreement between Senator James and any Democratic Representative, has assumed such aspect that it calls for state wide attention. We have no more right to take part in that contest, and have just as great right as has Senator James. The Democrats of Montgomery county have a representative at Washington—a Democrat of good standing. It would be impertinent in us to inject our desires or views into such a local contest; but it is no more impertinent than it is for the Senator to project his desires and views and purposes.

According to newspaper accounts Senator James has announced:

"I think Squire Turner will be selected. If not, in the event Chiles is nominated, I will oppose his confirmation on the grounds that he is not a Democrat, but an independent voter; that he voted against Bryan, Goebel, and other Democrats. These reasons, I think are enough."

Of course, these are not the real reasons that animate the Senator. It does not make the slightest difference to him whether a man supported or opposed Mr. Bryan eighteen years ago, or supported or opposed Gov. Goebel fifteen years ago. President Wilson did not favor Mr. Bryan's election; there are members of his cabinet, for the confirmation of whom Mr. James voted, who opposed Mr. Bryan's election; Mr. James has recommended for appointment, and had appointed to Federal office in Kentucky, men who opposed regular Democratic nominees within a year of their appointment. No one, therefore, can accept as sincere the statement that it is because of any past political independence that he favors or opposes the appointment of any particular man to office.

President Wilson has turned over to Senator James, as completely as did President Taft to Senator Bradley, the Federal patronage in the State; Senator James has used that patronage, as did Senator Bradley, to ostracize the friends of the President, and to reward those who fought the President's nomination. He has further used those appointments to build up a machine moulded to the purposes of the whiskey interests. Not only has Senator James dictated the Presidential appointments, but according to the statements made by men appointed to office by the President, the Senator has dictated the minor appointments going even to the extent of directing the patronage of the office in certain contracts.

There has never been, in the history of any state, a more glaring

INSURANCE COMPANIES

Are Leaving Kentucky on Account of the Glenn Insurance
Bill Just Passed.

Several local insurance agents have received notices from their companies to stop writing insurance on account of the drastic insurance bill known as the Glenn bill which was passed by both houses and signed by the Governor Saturday. It is feared that all insurance companies organized outside of the state will withdraw.

All policies now in force will of course stand but no new business can be secured by the agents.

Insurance men claim that this bill will be very detrimental to a large number of business men who are doing business on capital secured by mortgage on real estate on which insurance must be carried.

ing illustration of the use of patronage to build up a political machine to be used by a faction of the party; nor, in our judgment, a more deplorable illustration of the President permitting another to dictate his patronage so as to punish those who fought for, and reward those who fought against the President's nomination.

And now in the face of this record, the Senator announces that if the Postmaster General, and the President dare to exercise their discretion in appointing one who is not agreeable to him he will fight his confirmation. For one, we do not believe Senator James would ever oppose anything the President wanted; there was never a chance, in our judgment, of his opposing any appointment made by the President; but if he can retain the absolute control of the Federal patronage, through a combination of bluff and servility, it will enable him to strengthen the machine that is being constructed by him for his own purpose.

It has been the immemorial custom for the Democratic party for the Democratic Representative to have a pre-potent influence in the appointment of postmasters in their districts. If recognition by the President is dependent, as is the recognition by Senator James, upon the approval of the whiskey interests of the State, it is well that that also should be known.

Candidates for the Senate are to be nominated by the Democrats and Republicans in August of this year; candidates for state offices are to be nominated in August of 1915. Does the President intend, or is he willing, to have the whole power of the Federal patronage in Kentucky and the prestige of his great office and high character thrown into the scales in favor of those who have been inimical to him, and are representatives of the liquor interests?

President Taft, at the behest of Senator Bradley, appointed only his opponents to office, and the Republican party in Kentucky was wrecked. President Wilson, at the behest of Senator James, has so far appointed only his opponents to office in Kentucky. Will there be a like result?

SIGNATURE OF THE GOVERNOR

All That is Needed to Abolish Montgomery County Fiscal Court.

As heretofore announced in the Advocate, the House adopted by a unanimous vote of 65 to 0, the Judy bill (being House bill No. 494) giving to Montgomery county the commission plan of government and Saturday the Senate, by a unanimous vote of 27 to 0, adopted the bill as passed by the House, so that nothing but the signature of Gov. James B. McCreary is needed to make it become effective. This, of course, he will affix, as quickly as the bill reaches him.

Under it, three Commissioners will be elected by the voters of the entire county in the fall of 1915 and they will take office on the first Monday in January, 1916, which is two years earlier than under the present law. Without the Judy bill, we could not have had Commissioners until the first Monday in January, 1918. The county will be divided into three districts, so that each portion of the county will be represented, but the voters of the entire county elect.

One of its best provisions, namely, the non-partisan feature, we regret to say, met with such determined opposition, that rather than have no relief at all, it was deemed wise to omit same, but the bill adopted, while not what we had hoped for, is a big step in the right direction and we expect to see the law amended at the next session so as to place the commissioners on a non-partisan basis. Politics should have no place in the handling of our financial affairs.

To Senator J. Will Clay and Representative John A. Judy, the voters of Montgomery county are indebted for their earnest efforts to carry into effect the wishes of the people, as expressed last fall, when this change was determined upon and to Lieutenant Governor Edward J. McDermott, who assisted in securing an early hearing on the measure in the Senate, we extend sincere thanks upon behalf of our people.

ROOSEVELT AND

THE NEGRO

In the current issue of "Outlook" ex-President Roosevelt has an article on the treatment of the negro in Brazil and shows how differently the black man is regarded in Brazil than he is in the United States.

In short Col. Roosevelt states that the negro in Brazil is placed on an equal footing with the white man, that among the lower classes the blacks and whites freely intermarry, in fact are encouraged to do so. That, according to the scientific men of Brazil, is the only solution of the negro problem. While the editor of "Outlook" at the head of his article tries to disclaim for Roosevelt any preference for the Brazilian method of solving the negro problem, yet throughout his article it is plain to see that Roosevelt not only justifies the Brazilian practice of marrying negroes, but it is wonderful that he contained his approval of the absorption of the black race by the white in such mild words as he did. Roosevelt speaks of the considerable infiltration of negro blood into some of the lower classes of white people. Think of that! The "infiltration" of negro blood into the veins of white people.

The word "infiltration" may not denote that the negro blood is to become purer by being filtered through the veins of white people, but the word certainly connotes such a meaning. Think of such a thing! An ex-president of the United States advocating the filtration of negro blood through the veins of white people. Think of a man who has occupied the highest position within the gift of the people, talking about the feasibility, practicability and hinting at the advisability of the white race absorbing the negroes by intermarrying. The thought is too horrible to be entertained by any Southerner and few Northerners.

Of all the impetuous Roosevelt has ever said about the negro race, of all he has done, of all the times he has "slept and et with them," according to the little boy, this present plan to absorb the negroes, to corrupt and pollute white blood by intermingling the blood of negroes, is the most degrading and the most horrible of any of the theories Roosevelt has ever advanced in regard to race equality.

No wonder Roosevelt is regarded as a monster by some. But how on earth could any Kentuckian vote for such a man? For the reason that Roosevelt, the circus man, has hoodwinked them, because the only picture that presents itself to the people's mind is Roosevelt going up San Juan hill with a naked sword

STRENGTH FOR OLD PEOPLE

A Simple Remedy Which Favors Longevity.

You act as though you just wondered how you are going to get through this trying season and do your work.

You may be overworked or have had a bad cold which has left you without strength, ambition or much interest in life; in fact you are all run-down.

Let us tell you that Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, is just the remedy you need to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength.

A prominent Boston lawyer says: "My mother, who is 76 years of age, owes her good health to Vinol as since taking it she can walk farther and do more than she has for years. I consider it a wonderful blood making and strength creating tonic."

We have such faith in Vinol that if it does not quickly build you up, restore your strength and make you feel well again, we will return your money. Try Vinol on our guarantee.

in his hand. No, Colonel, love your negroes all you want to, marry one yourself if you like, but let Brazil practice her own theories and keep the practice of them within the boundaries of that country. There is no place for such practices in this country and the man who thinks he can practice such theories here should either be put in an insane asylum or hung. The laws themselves should be far more stringent. It is a crime at common law for a white man or woman to marry a negro, and in this State the common law has been supplemented by statute. But any man or woman who has lost all sense of decency and morals can go to Ohio and marry a negro, but such people should remain in Ohio or Brazil or in some other place where such practices are not only justified but encouraged.

It would be a great thing for Col. Roosevelt to stay in Brazil or Mexico or go back to live in Africa where the customs of the country pleases him so much better than our own. We would say good luck to you Colonel in such a venture for your conversation is neither interesting or pleasing when applied to our own country.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

JORDAN'S ROCKY ROAD HARD TO NEGOTIATE

(Contributed)

A man's life is full of crosses and temptations. He comes in to the world without being consulted and goes out against his will. The journey is over a rocky road and the rule of contrarities is one of the features of the trip. When he is little the big girls kiss him, and when he is big the little girls kiss him. If he is poor people will say he is a bad manager; then if he gets rich, they say he is dishonest, and if he needs credit, he cannot get it. If he is prosperous, everyone wants to do him a favor. If he is in politics, they will say it is for graft. If he does not give to charity, they say he is a stingy cuss, and if he is liberal, they will say it is for show. If he is actively religious, he is a hypocrite, and if he takes no interest in religion, he is a hardened sinner. If he is affectionate, he is a soft specimen, and if he makes no show of his feelings, he is heartless. If he dies young, they will say there was a great future before him; that is always said after a poor young fellow has gone. Still if he lives to an old age, he has missed his calling. If he saves money, he is a grouch, and if he spends it he is a loafer. If he gets money he is called a grafter, and if he don't they call him a bum. After all is said and done, why in thunder should we care? For life is just one blamed thing after another.

EX-NEWSBOY TALKS OF HIS LIFE

The little newsboys that haunt the streets of Kentucky cities will have to go out of business until they are older if the child labor bill now pending in the Kentucky legislature becomes a law. One ex-newsboy who has won a national reputation is the Rev. Charles Stelzle. He is a member of the New Jersey Child Labor Committee and he was asked the other day whether he agreed with those who defend street work as a wholesome occupation for boys.

"I do not, he said, I was a newsboy for several years on the lower East Side of New York, so I know something about the question. I do not mean to say that a newsboy may not develop into the right kind of a man, but it will be in spite of the fact that he was a newsboy, not because of it. It is true that the contact the boy has with people sharpens his wits, but the danger is that he will depend exclusively upon those wits in his more serious work in later life.

"The whole glamor of the street gives the boy a disproportionate sense of real values. The tobacco taste of life that the newsboy gets destroys his taste for the more normal things. That is made apparent in the fact that when the average newsboy comes to apply his mind in school—to study—he is not equal to his task. He cannot apply his mind consecutively and seriously.

"This idea that every newsboy is on the road to the White House is absolutely silly. It is true that the newsboy has the advantage over the more quietly trained boy when it comes to alertness and repartee, but in the long run he is out-distanced by the young fellow who has had the advantage of the school or some other work which may serve as an equivalent of a school education.

"In addition to that great advantage the newsboy is subjected to all temptations of street life as far as his morals are concerned, and there is no doubt that his contact with these conditions and frequently his sufferings in other directions which may seem to toughen him, actually take away from the finer sensibilities which go toward the making of the best kind of man."

Here's Proof.

"I had my back hurt in the Boer War and two years ago I was hit by a street car. I tried all kinds of dope without success. I saw your Liniment in a drug store and got a bottle to try. The first application caused instant relief, and now except for a little stiffness, I am almost well."—Fletcher Norman, Whittier, Calif.

Sprained Ankle

"As a user of your Liniment for the last 15 years, I can say it is one of the best on the market. Fifteen years ago I sprained my ankle and had to use crutches, and the doctors said I would always be lame. A friend advised me to try your Liniment and after using it night and morning for three months I could walk without a cane and run as good as any of the other fellows in my department. I have never been without a bottle since that time."—Mr. William H. Briscoe, Central Islip, N. Y.

Mr. Breckinridge's Charges.

Elsewhere in this issue, we quote from an editorial appearing in Saturday's Lexington Herald, in which Senator Ollic M. James is charged with prostituting the power of his great office in an effort to build up a political machine in Kentucky. It is flatly charged that his recommendations for federal positions are all acceptable to certain interests. It is also freely charged by others that with possibly one or two exceptions, those receiving recognition are for one particular candidate for U. S. Senator to succeed Mr. Bradley.

Unlike some, our friendship and admiration for Mr. James is not of recent origin. We have always been his friend and when he addressed the Democratic Congressional Convention held in this city in August, 1910, it was our pleasure and privilege to suggest that he be elevated from the lower to the higher house of Congress.

The charges against him therefore come to us not only as a surprise, but as a source of real regret and we are loath to believe them. We are always slow to lose faith in our friends and entertain the hope that the Herald's charges are unfounded. In this spirit of friendship, we extend the use of our columns to the Senator to make such correction, denial or explanation as he may deem proper.

To those readers who have responded to our call for help by paying their subscriptions, we extend our sincere thanks and we hope the others who are owing us will emulate their example, so that we can make the improvements in our plant we contemplate.

Where is the fellow who said Mayor Oldham would not be on the job?

Beckham has announced that he will open his speaking campaign at Elizabethtown, March 16. Mr. Stanley already has filled a number of speaking engagements in various parts of the state.

"The Prince of Tonight"

From a ranch in Oklahoma to a leading role in a musicale spectacle sounds like a big jump. The mere thought of it is enough to set a whirl the head of any ambitious young girl. But listen to what follows: In "The Prince of Tonight" the musical fantasy coming to the Tabb Opera House March 20th is Miss Betty Caldwell, and the part she fills is one of the most important in the play. Until she was 12, she lived on a ranch in Oklahoma, where she rode bronchos and was the pride of the ranchmen. Last season she was assigned the part of "Bonnie Stuart" the soubrette in "The Prince of Tonight," a role which she plays again this season. Besides being an excellent actress, her personality is magnetic and constantly radiates warm rays of sunshine, and the witching smile that forever fits over her piquant face is charming.

FRECKLES

February And March Bring Out Unsightly Spots. How To Remove Them Easily.

The woman with tender skin dreads February and March because they are likely to cover her face with ugly freckles. No matter how thick her veil, the sun and winds have strong tendency to make her freckle.

Fortunately for her peace of mind the recent discovery of a new prescription, othine—double strength, makes it possible for even those most susceptible to freckles to keep their skin clear and white. Now matter how stubborn a case of freckles you have, the double strength othine should remove them. Get an ounce from W. S. Lloyd and banish the freckles. Money back if it fails.

If fortune come to see us,
With her golden smile,
Too much joy would kill us,
And we want to live a while.

SHE SUGGESTED A REASON

A noted Sunday School worker was once asked to talk to the children of a Sunday School on the subject of temperance. He is very earnest in the cause and wears a bit of blue ribbon as a badge of his principles. Rising before the school, he pointed to his bit of blue ribbon and said: "Now, can any of you children give me a reason why I am not a drunkard?" There was no response for a moment. Then a childish little voice in the rear of the room piped out, "cause this is a prohibition town."

Alfalfa should be encouraged on every farm. It is the greatest of forage and grazing crops and while it requires some effort to get alfalfa established, it is well worth while to make the effort and to try again if not successful at first.

Home killed meats, nothing better.

POOR MEN!

Mayfield Messenger: "Married men are always in debt, because they have families to keep up, and unmarried men are in the same fix because they haven't any. So a man, be he married or single, is between the devil and the deep blue sea, in so far as debt is concerned, during these good times when the prices of living are so high."

When Like Cures Like

By TROY ALLISON.

Minna Reed almost ran down the steps from the house bearing the sign "Mme. Voirst, Clairvoyant." The lady's communications had upset all her preconceived plans and ideas. Her mother had always opposed her trying anything of the kind, but when she saw the sign an overwhelming desire to inquire into things unknown had beset her. The rest of the party had gone down to the beach, and after staying in her room at the summer hotel for an hour with a headache she had slipped out to buy a fascinating kimono she had seen in a Japanese store the day before. The clairvoyant's sign had caught her eye, and for a whole hour she had sat in the darkened, stuffy little room with her nerves all at strained attention.

She went back to her room and, walking straight to the dresser, looked regretfully at the picture of a frank boyish face surrounded by a little plain gold frame.

"I never would have thought it," she whispered. "I thought you were the truest, noblest thing on earth. And she said the man with black eyes, now one of my circle of acquaintances, was deceitful to the core and that if I did not separate his path from mine he would prove the blighting sorrow of my life. Jimmy, dear, it seems impossible to believe you could bring sorrow into any one's life, but it must have been you she meant, for you are the only man of my acquaintance who has black eyes." And, being only nineteen and believing she had come face to face with the big sorrow of her life, she threw herself across the bed and sobbed because she felt that she must immediately take steps to separate Jimmy Kent's path from hers—Jimmy, who had lent her his red ball to play with the very first day she went to kindergarten.

James Kent, unconscious of the heavy cloud of suspicion hovering over him, came from his ocean swim and lay idly on the sand, hoping Minna would get over her headache and walk down to the beach. Finally, sunburned and glowing, he went back to the hotel and found her on the veranda, gazing listlessly at the sea.

"Is it as bad as all that, little girl? You are the most forlorn looking specimen I ever saw," he said as he sat on the porch rail and eyed her commiseratingly.

Minna, seeing the sympathy in his eyes, wished fervently that they were any other color than black.

"What on earth made you have black eyes, Jimmy? I dislike them so!" she said petulantly.

Jimmy opened the offending orbs very wide in his surprise.

"By Jove, you are a queer one, Minna! You told me yesterday down on the beach that I had the most beautiful eyes you ever saw. Positively made me blush to know I was so beautiful. 'Fraid to sleep in them last night lest I should spoil 'em. And now—Minna, you haven't met any fellow with gray eyes, have you?" he asked suspiciously.

"No, I haven't," indignantly. "but black eyes are treacherous—and I never could trust them."

Whether they were treacherous or not was left an open question, but they certainly proved persuasive, and finally Jimmy was in possession of the whole story.

"Minna Reed, you ought to be ashamed of yourself! Do I look like a blighting sorrow?" mimicking her forlorn tone. "I might be mistaken for a prizefighter," exhibiting his muscular arm with pride, "but I'm blamed if I'd know how to start out in the blighting sorrow business."

Minna, anxious to believe, still looked dubious.

"If your eyes weren't black!" she sighed.

"Now, look here, my child. I'd get a special act of congress to change them to suit you if I could. You know I've done everything to please you all my life. Why will you believe that utter rot? Did she tell you anything tangible that you absolutely know was true?" Jimmy was in training for a lawyer and wanted to contest all evidence in the case.

"She told me my name and age," triumphantly.

"Didn't you have to write it on a piece of paper first?" suspiciously.

"Y-yes, but she didn't see it—honestly she didn't. I folded it tightly and put it on the table, and she sat and toyed with it while she talked."

"The mischief she didn't see it!" growled Jimmy. "Anything else?"

"She said I had an Aunt Mary in

Heat Units

On December 16, 1913, the Pittsburg Testing Laboratory made a test of a sample of gas taken from the Inez, Kentucky field, with this result:

"B. T. U. Per Cubic Foot--1242.7"

This test shows that the character of the gas which we are furnishing to our consumers is way ahead of that of any gas so far produced.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Courtney Horton)

At the regular bi-monthly awarding of the Hoffman medal in chapel Tuesday morning, March 3rd, Pudgie Samuels, of the sixth grade, was the successful contestant. Miss Samuels attained a perfect average in arithmetic for the prescribed time.

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the "Purple and Old Gold" literary society was held in chapel Friday afternoon, March 6th. The subject for debate was Resolved, "That the President of the United States should be elected for a term of six years and not be eligible for a second term." The question was decided in favor of the affirmative.

Miss Nell Whaley and Mr. Willard McGuire, of the County High School and Mrs. T. B. Rodman were visitors at our literary society meeting Friday afternoon March 6th.

The following reply has been received from the pupils of the County High School, in regard to the debate proposed by the members of the Purple and Old Gold literary society of the Mt. Sterling High School: "The members of the Black and Old Gold literary society accept the challenge to a joint debate provided the seniors do not debate, time and place to be decided upon at a meeting of the committees."

The above reply has not been accepted by the members of the Purple and Old Gold literary society. However, a meeting of the respective committees is to be held Thursday afternoon and it is thought that little trouble will be experienced in arranging said debate.

Rev. Mark Collis, of Lexington, who is conducting the protracted meeting now being held at the Christian church, in this city, conducted the devotional exercises in chapel Thursday morning, March 5th.

Rev. E. A. Osborn, of Rome, Ga., who is conducting the singing at the protracted meeting at the Christian church, in this city, sang for us in chapel Thursday morning, March 5th. His singing was enjoyed very much by all who heard him.

A "Boys Club" was formed last Tuesday and as a preliminary step James Van Sant was elected president, Russell DeHaven vice-president, Howard VanAntwerp, Jr., secretary and Charlie Oldham treasurer.

"QUO VADIS"

If praises were money, Mr. George Kleine would be the richest man in the world. His production of the Cines photo-drama, "Quo Vadis" has almost exhausted the adjective possibilities of the press and public. In every city where this soul stirring photo-drama is presented it is greeted with one unending stream of flattering applause and criticism. It is the monumental achievement thus far in this wonderful field of entertainment and deserves all that is said and written about it. The George Kleine production of "Quo Vadis" will be the attraction at the Tabb Opera House for one matinee and night, Saturday, March 20th. Prices: Matinee, 15 cents; night 25 cents, children 15 cents.

MAYO'S CONDITION GREATLY IMPROVED

The many friends of Mr. J. C. Mayo, of Paintsville, in this section of the state will be pleased to learn that his condition is much improved and it is thought that in a few weeks he will be able to leave the hospital.

Mr. Mayo, who is one of Kentucky's leading citizens and richest men has done more for eastern Kentucky than any living man.

SAME WAY EVERY PLACE

The Frankfort correspondent of the Lexington Leader writes:

"There are still some echoes to be heard of the banquet of the Young Men's Democratic Club held in Frankfort a few nights ago. One of the guests left after the banquet with Hon. A. O. Stanley and was his fellow-passenger. This guest returned to Frankfort a few days later and was telling about it.

"What did Stanley think of it?" he was asked.

"Well, he said it was a mighty fine banquet, and he met some fine young men, but it looked to him as though the invited list must have been made up by boosters for Beckham."—Winchester Sun.
